

International Workshop
Approaching Ancient Egypt
Methods and Perspectives for Young Egyptologists

古代エジプトへのアプローチ
——若手研究者たちの方法と視点——

Saturday 18 July 2026

Waseda University (Toyama Campus)

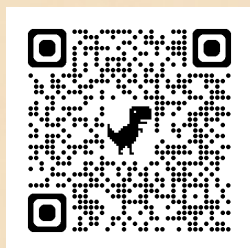

Scope: Young Scholars, including Graduate and Undergraduate Students from Japan and Overseas

Capacity: 40 participants

参加無料

国内外の研究者・若手研究者に古代エジプト研究の多様な研究方法と視点についてお話いただきます。日本の学生の皆さまのご参加をお待ちしております。

Register Here!
(by July 8)

See the reverse side for details!

Program

Program subject to change

10:00-10:05		Opening
Session 1		Texts and their Materiality
10:05-10:30	Tokihisa Higo	Examining the Book of the Dead Chapter 125 through Manuscripts
10:30-11:00	John Rogers	From Fragments to Frameworks: Using Manetho Critically
11:00-11:30	Elena Hertel	The Materiality of Inscribed Objects in Ancient Egypt
11:30-11:45		Coffee Break
Session 2		Documentation and Conservation
11:45-12:15	Maarten Praet	Forgotten Documents, New Discoveries: The Importance of Archival Research in Egyptology
12:15-12:45	Mohamed Youssef	Different Phases of Restoration for TT 265, The Tomb of Amenemopet
12:45-14:00		Lunch Break
Session 3		Archaeology and Material Culture
14:00-14:30	Seria Yamazaki	When Archaeology Tells a Different Story than Texts and Images: The Case of Ancient Egyptian Amulets
14:30-15:00	Mizuki Shindo	Reconstructing the Life History of New Kingdom Pit Graves at North Saqqara
15:00-15:30	Luna Beerden	Written in Bone: Approaching Ancient Egyptian Lived Realities through Osteoarchaeology
15:30-15:45		Coffee Break
Session 4		Theory and Historiography
15:45-16:15	Geirr Lunden	Does Egyptology Have a Theory? A Historical Perspective from Visual Art
16:15-16:45	Andrés Martín García de la Cruz	Postcolonial Egyptology: A Window into the Past, Present, and Future of the Discipline
16:45-17:15		Discussion
17:15-17:25		Closing

This workshop aims to provide a platform for young Egyptologists to exchange ideas and engage in interdisciplinary dialogue. Particular emphasis is placed on fostering interaction between international participants and Japanese students at both the graduate and undergraduate levels. Through this exchange, participants will have the opportunity to learn from diverse perspectives and gain insight into a wide range of research methodologies and current approaches in Egyptology.

このワークショップでは、国内外の研究の場で活躍する若手エジプト学研究者をお招きし、日本国内の学生との交流を通じて、多様な研究視点や研究方法について学ぶ機会を提供します。ご関心のある方はぜひ積極的にご参加ください。

The workshop is open to students and researchers free of charge.
Contact: Tokihisa Higo, University of Tsukuba (higo.tokihisa.ft@u.tsukuba.ac.jp)